Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson will make their home at Earlington, this county, after their return from their bridal tour.

DIVORCE AT HENDERSON.

Henderson, Ky., Sept. 21—Dr. H. W. Edwards, a prominent physician of this city, was granted a divorce from his wife, Kate P. Edwards, on grounds of abandonment. The petition states that they were married in December, 1896, and the deposition in the case states that she left him in March, 1902. According to the report of the nonresident attorney, Mrs. Edwards is thought to have been in Fairfield, Conn.

CORNERSTONE LAID.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 21—The cornerstone of the new experimental station at the Kentucky state college was laid Saturday under the auspices of the lodge of Masons. An appropriate prayer was offered by Dean Baker P. Lee, of Christ church cathedral and the ritual of the order of Masons was read by Past Grand Master J. Sonle Smith.

TO BUILD COLLEGE.

Cadiz, Ky., Sept. 21—The officers and trustees of the Cadiz Normal and Theological college, a colored institution of this place, have been given a lot near the Colored Baptist church by the Rev. W. H. McRidley and wife, colored, upon which they will erect a two story brick college building.

RAISED FROM THE DEAD.

O. W. Lantis, "Porter" for the Oriental Hotel, Chanute, Kan., says: "I know what it was to suffer with neuralgia, deed I did, and I got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment and I was 'raised from the dead.' I tried to get some more, but before I had 'deposited' my bottle, I was cured entirely. I am tellin' de truth, too," 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kohl and Co.

TRADE WITH TURKEY

It Amounts to Over Two Millions Yearly.

Some Disagreement in Figures—Gradual Increase.

Commerce between the United States and Turkey amounts to $4,000,000 annually. This seems like a very considerable sum, but its apparent magnitude is somewhat reduced by the matter-of-fact announcement of the department of commerce and labor, through its bureau of statistics, that a piaster is only 4 1/2 cents in value, or to be more accurate, 4.4 cents. These are the figures of the Turkish government. Reduced to United States currency, they give a total value of a little more than two million dollars. The figures of the bureau of statistics however, state our total commerce with Turkey last year at about six million dollars with Turkey in Europe and about five million dollars with Turkey in Asia. If that of Turkey's dependency in Africa—Egypt—were included, the total would be about 23 million dollars, but the figures of the Turkish government regarding its foreign commerce, do not include that of Egypt.

It is not surprising, however, that the figures of Turkey and those of the United States do not agree regarding the commerce between the two countries, since the routes of transportation between the two countries are in most cases across other countries, and thus render difficult any accurate presentation of the real value of the commerce passing between them.

MONEY TO PERU

POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT MAKES IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

Inhabitants of the United States will after October 1 be able to send money to Peru through the postoffice department. Postmaster Fisher has received an announcement that under a treaty recently entered into money orders between Peru and this country would be possible after this month.

The announcement also made known an important change in the present intermediary rates, the minimum being increased from five to eight cents for money orders under $10. The regular intermediary schedule of five cents for each additional $10 will remain unchanged.

The old international rate of ten cents for each $10 still remains in effect between the United States and a few other countries, but is being superseded as rapidly as practicable by the more moderate intermediary rate. The postoffice refuses to take orders for more than $100, but will take any number from one person for smaller amounts.

ANOTHER MATCH

ALABAMA KID AND "KID" HURST TO SPAR AGAIN.

Another sparring match between Alabama Kid, of Paducah, and Kid Hurst, of Hot Springs, Ark., colored pugilists, will take place probably at one of the parks Wednesday. About Labor day was a draw, and this one is expected to be a lively one. The Arkansas pug says he didn't come here for his health and will make "Alabama" think something happened this time.

DEVoured BY WORMS.

Children often cry, not from pain, but from hunger, although fed abundantly. The entire trouble arises from inanition, their food is not assimilated, but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once, very much to the surprise and joy of the mother. 25c at DuBois, Kohl and Co.

Mayfield Woman Killed by a Scratch.

Court of Appeals Begins its Sessions at Frankfort—Tragedy in Breathitt.

CUPIID BUSY AT FULTON.

DIED OF LOCKJAW.

Mrs. Agnes Willis Roberts, wife of Charley Roberts, died of lock-jaw induced by a scratch on the hand. Mrs. Roberts was 38 years of age and was the daughter of Maj. H. J. Willis, of Leitchfield, Ky., where she was born and raised.

ANOTHER IN BREATHITT.

Jackson, Ky., Sept. 21.—Boyd Griffith, a leading citizen of Breathitt county, was struck on the head with a rock and his skull crushed by Elijah Boling. The men were engaged in a controversy over the weight of a steer. Griffith's wounds are pronounced fatal. He is a brother of the Hon. John Griffith, who was the Republican opponent of Judge James Hargis for county judge, and he stood as high as any man in the county. Boling is a cousin of Sheriff Callahan and a brother of George Boling, who was indicted last week at Cynthia for false swearing in the Jett trial.

CUPIID AT FULTON.

Fulton, Ky., Sept. 21.—Cupid has been at work in Fulton and six or seven weddings are slated to occur between now and Christmas.

It is said that two young railroad men who work in Superintendent Gaven's office, will be married in the early part of October to young ladies residing in nearby towns.

Four well-known Fulton society people will be married within the next three months, one being about the middle of October.

THE COURT OF APPEALS.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 21.—The fall term of the court of Appeals began today with about an average docket. Chief Justice Burnam and Judges Hobson, O'Rear, Nunn, Settle, Paynter and Barker are here.

Judge Hobson has appointed Armond Summers, of Barren county, as law clerk and stenographer to succeed R. E. Coombs, who retires to practice law at Glasgow. Mr. Coombs has been stenographer for Judge Hobson since he came on the bench.

DEATHS IN HICKMAN.

Fulton, Ky., Sept. 21.—Almer Collins, aged 35, a resident of near Sandy Branch, died of consumption after a long illness. Mrs. Webb, aged 60 years, died last night of general debility.

AN APT PUPIL

HE FOLLOWED THE MOVEMENTS OF CONDUCTOR FAITHFULLY.

A green flagman was recently employed by the I. C. and he seemed unable to catch onto the signals with lanterns. The conductor in order to help him out, instructed him to watch him and going out one night on the siding to get his train out he began to signal. After the train had gotten under way he began to instruct his new flagman following with the same motions. Finally the bottom flew out of the lantern held by the conductor and sent it spinning down the track and the flagman thinking this a part of the tactics promptly threw his own lantern away. He was accepted as a rapid learner.

GERMAN SYRUP.

We want to impress on our readers that Boschee's German Syrup is positively the only preparation on the market today that does relieve and cure consumption. It contains the specifics, such as pure tar, extracts of gums, etc., which have been so highly endorsed for the cure of coughs, colds and consumption by the great medical congresses. The consumptive, whether his disease is in the throat or lungs, must have rest at night, and be free from the spasm of dry and racking cough in the morning. The diseased parts want rest, healing and soothing treatment, and the patient needs fresh air, good food, etc. German Syrup will give free and easy expectation in the morning with speedy and permanent relief. Small bottles, 25 cents; regular size, containing nearly four times as much, 75 cents. At all druggists.

Chronic Sores Eating Ulcers, Upon the System.

Nothing is a source of so much trouble as an old sore or ulcer, particularly when located upon the lower extremities where the circulation is weak and sluggish. A gangrenous eating ulcer upon the leg is a frightful sight, and as the poison burrows deeper and deeper into the tissue beneath and the sore continues to spread, one can almost see the flesh melting away and feel the strength going out with the sickening discharges. Great running sores and deep offensive ulcers often develop from a simple boil, swollen gland, bruise or pimple, and are a threatening danger always, because, while all such sores are not cancerous, a great many are, and this should make you suspicious of all chronic, slow-healing ulcers and sores, particularly if cancer runs in your family. Face sores are common and cause the greatest annoyance because they are so persistent and unsightly and detract so much from one's personal appearance.

Middle aged and old people and those whose blood is contaminated and tainted with the germs and poison of malarial or some previous sickness, are the chief sufferers from chronic sores and ulcers. While the blood remains in an unhealthy, polluted condition healing is impossible, and the sore will continue to grow and spread in spite of washes and salves or any superficial or surface treatment, for the sore is but the outward sign of some constitutional disorder, a bad condition of the blood and system which local remedies cannot cure. A blood purifier and tonic is what you need. Something to cleanse the blood, restore its lost properties, quicken the circulation and invigorate the constitution, and S. S. S. is just such a remedy.

S. S. S. reaches these old chronic sores through the blood. It goes to the very root of the trouble and counteracts and removes from the blood all the impurities and poisons, and gradually builds up the entire system and strengthens the sluggish circulation, and when the blood has been purified and the system purged of all morbid, unhealthy matter the healing process begins, and the ulcer or sore is soon entirely gone.

S. S. S. contains no mineral or poisonous drugs of any description, but is guaranteed a purely vegetable remedy, a blood purifier and tonic combined and a safe and permanent cure for chronic sores and ulcers. If you have a slow-healing sore of any kind, external or internal, write us about it, and our physicians will advise you without charge. Book on "The Blood and Its Diseases" free.

THE TWO FROGS.

Find the Third Frog.

One hot summer, the lake in which two Frogs lived was completely dried up, and they were obliged to set off in search of water elsewhere. Coming to a deep and deliciously cool well, one of the Frogs proposed that they should jump in at once.

"Wait a bit," cried the other.

"Why so?" impatiently rejoined the first frog.

"Because, friend, prudence demands that we consider how, if the well should dry up, we could get out again."

MORAL: The moral of this fable is intended to put us in mind to "look before we leap." That we should not undertake any action of importance without considering first what the result of it is likely to prove, and how we shall be able to come off, upon such and such a contingency.

THE PARDONS ISSUED IN KENTUCKY

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 18.—When Governor Beckham issued his doctored pardon record, previous to taking the stump in advocacy of his candidacy for re-election, he failed to include in that remarkable document the number of paroles granted under his administration. The state parole system is in reality the "back door" to the governor's pardon null that is at present temporarily closed down.

The parole record in the office of the state prison commissioners is a revelation, and for the first time in the history of the Beckham administration is made public.

According to the record, as submitted to The Herald correspondent, by Secretary of the commission, Mr. Joseph Barlow, to wit, the 194 paroles have been granted to persons convicted of felonies in the state during the past three years. Of this number 134 are persons charged and convicted of the crime of murder and manslaughter, who have been convicted and incarceration have been extended executive clemency by the board of prison commissioners, which includes Edward Fimmel, of Cynthiana, George V. Greene, Bowling Green, and James M. Richardson, of Glasgow. Classified, the list is as follows:

For murder 50
For manslaughter 81
For malicious cutting 2
For malicious shooting 10
For larceny 8
For horse stealing 5

For grand larceny 10
For false swearing and hog stealing 1
For forgery 1
For confederating 4
For breaking into railroad car 1
For burglary 3
For bigamy 1
For aiding prisoner to escape 1
For robbery 4
For train wrecking 1
For stealing documents 1
For false pretenses 1
For destroying private property 1
For receiving stolen property 1

Total cases 194
This is an astonishingly large number of convicts turned loose in the course of three years, when it is taken into consideration that Governor Beckham, according to his own "doctored" statement, has in addition released 201 persons convicted of felonies during the same length of time. From an inspection and comparison of the record in the office of the state prison commission the murderer found a fund of sympathy, and, with alarming regularity and frequency, witnessed the opening of the prison doors through which he walked to freedom. A majority of these turned loose by the prison board were "life termers," but whether there is any protest of record against releasing them is not known, as that portion of the records is not accessible to the press.

POWERS ENCOURAGED

HIS MOTHER VISITS HIM AT THE JAIL.

Georgetown, Ky., Sept. 21.—Mrs. Amos Powers, mother of Caleb Powers, arrived in Georgetown Saturday and went immediately to the jail to visit her son. She was accompanied by her physician, Dr. Samuel Bennett, of Williamsburg, Ky., who because of her infirmities, had volunteered to make the trip with her.

Mrs. Powers, contrary to expectations, did not break down upon meeting her son, but, like the Spartan mother, bade him be brave, stand and fight for his idea of the right, and for the upholding of his innocence.

When Mrs. Powers was admitted to the jail Caleb Powers was brought out into the reception lobby, and no eyes witnessed the meeting between mother and son.

Mrs. Powers after many exhortations to her son to be brave in facing the ordeals of the next few weeks, left the jail at 3:55 o'clock, accompanied by Miss Gray.

Mrs. Powers is a woman whose face shows great strength of character. Apparently about 65 years of age, her hair is dark, mingled with gray. Her face is cast in the same general lines as that of her son, aquiline, but strong, showing above a firm mouth and heavy eyebrows, a forehead indicative of intelligence and strength of purpose. It is not hard for one having seen the mother to realize the source of Powers' strength of will.

STATE FLOWER.

WILL HE SELECTED BY THE SCHOOL CHILDREN.

Nearly every state in the union except Kentucky has adopted a state flower, usually one characteristic of the state, and the school children of this state will be asked to take up the question and decide upon a flower by vote. The result will be announced at the chrysanthemum and floral exhibition to be held in Louisville November 11 to 14, inclusive.

The flowers adopted by the several states follow:

Alabama, golden rod; Delaware, peach blossom; Iowa, wild rose; Montana, bitter root; Nebraska, corn tassel; Oklahoma, mistletoe; Rhode Island, violet; Vermont, red clover; Colorado, columbine; Idaho, syringa; Maine, pine tassel; Michigan, apple blossom; New York, rose; Oregon, lily of valley; Utah, sego lily.

21 YEARS A DYSPLEPTIC.

R. H. Foster, 318 South 2d St., Salt Lake City, writes: "I have been bothered with dyspepsia or indigestion for 21 years; tried many doctors without relief; recently I got a bottle of Herbine. One bottle cured me, I am now tapering off on the second. I have recommended it to my friends; it is curing them, too." 50c at DuBois, Kolb and Co.

BEAT THE CHAMPIONS

Paducah Took Both Games Yesterday Afternoon.

The Egyptians Put Up a Stubborn Fight in the Presence of a Large Crowd.

GOSSIP OF THE DIAMOND

The close of the baseball season here yesterday was marked by two fairly good games, witnessed by about 1,000 people. Both were seven innings, and the first was won by Paducah by a score of 8 to 7, and the next by a score of 7 to 3. The first was quite exciting. Gardner, the left paw of the Henderson club, pitched for Paducah and Brockett, the crack pitcher of the K. I. T. league, was in the box for the Egyptians. Paducah's slugging did the work. Many errors were made on both sides, but costlier on the Paducah side, and in the seventh inning the score was seven to seven with Paducah at the bat and two men out. Meredith singled, Gardner lined out a fly to center field, and Powers muffed it. Meredith scoring and ending the game, but the Cairo boys, seeing they were beat, tried to run in a bluff by claiming that Powers threw the ball down, but it was too plain a ruse and Umpire Doyle declined to entertain such a proposition. The winning run ended the game.

The next game was not so exciting, ten hits being made off Lloyd, the Cairo twirler, and four off Best. The crowd was well pleased with the games, and Paducah won the loving cup from the champions. The summary is:

There will be amateur games here

Sunday afternoons until the weather gets too cold for ball playing. There are several good teams in the city and some hot games have been played by them this summer.

The members of the Cairo baseball club took home with them today a handsome vase purchased here, to be presented to their former manager, Mr. Gay Eisenberger. The vase will have attached to it a half dollar with these words engraved on it: "K. I. T. League Champions of 1903—From the Cairo ball players to Manager Gny."

The Louisville American association baseball club and the Hopkinsville K. I. T. club will play at Hopkinsville next Thursday and Friday. The line up will be as follows:

Schriver	c	Street
Hart	1b	Morris
Blashear	2b	Harris
Quinlan	ss	Chatham
Sullivan	3b	Betts
Kerwin	rf	Batler
Odwell	cf	Mullen
Clymer	lf	Farris
Bohannon, Eagan	p	Edwards, Bomar

The following hot shot came from Saturday's Henderson Gleaner: "So Paducah is of the opinion that the three games we won should not be counted, and in that case she would lead Henderson in the percentage column. The little city of windy baseball fans and players will have to bring forth a better argument than the one quoted above, for if the Owensboro games cannot be counted neither can the ones with Vincennes and in that case Paducah would still be scratching beneath us. If on the other hand Vincennes did complete the circuit, the three games we won from her must be counted, which they never have, and in that event, we would still be in the lead. We have Paducah bested in every possible way, and the only thing for her to do is to quit kicking, and try to get a better team for next year. In conclusion we would like to ask if Secretary Farnhaker is in arbitrary control of the K. I. T. league? If not, by what power is he invested with the privilege of officially figuring the percentage table to suit only Cairo and Paducah; and to allow other teams to count the games won from Vincennes 'as Vincennes made the circuit,' and debar Henderson from counting the three games she won, which three it was necessary for Vincennes to play before completing the circuit?"

SOCIALIST'S TICKET

There Will be One in Kentucky This Year.

The Socialist party is to present this year a state ticket, and a petition has already been filed with the secretary of state bearing more than the requisite 1,000 signatures, asking that their nominees be placed on the ballot.

Adam Vogel of Newport, Ky., is their nominee for Governor.

In Paducah the Socialist Labor party will have but one candidate, that for Mayor.

Mr. Newt Fells, 1945 Broad street, is the nominee, and his name will go on the ballot.

HENRY JONES DEAD

WELL KNOWN COLORED MAN DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS.

The butchers and gardeners on market were grieved to learn this morning that Henry Jones, one of the best known colored men in the county, was dead. Jones for many years had worked about the market house, and was quite a peculiar character. He always walked in the middle of the street, looking first to one side and then to the other in search of anything that he might pick up and use, or dispose of. He is said to have found many valuable things in this way. About three weeks ago he became ill, and died last night.

He was about 60 years old, and was an old time fiddler, at one time having the most celebrated dance band in this part of the country. He did work for every butcher on market, and is said to have averaged four or five dollars a day working from the time the market house opened until it closed for the day. A peculiar thing is that no one ever remembers seeing him spend a nickel in his long service among the people at the market place, and this gave rise to the report that he was a miser, and had much money stored up somewhere.

The deceased leaves a large family, and was respected by white and colored people alike for his honesty and hard work. He lived on South Third street.

RAILROAD NOTES

President Fish Makes Report on Y. & M. V.

New Freight Classification—The Pay Car Arrived Today.

The annual report of President Snyvogant Fish of the board of directors of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley Railroad company, which is operated by the Illinois Central, contains the following: Total mileage, 1,162, an addition of 66 3-4 since last year; bonds issued since June 30, 1900, $4,833,814, which sum was spent in improvement and extension. Within the same time the company has paid out of its earnings for back taxes in Mississippi $1,583,116, this money enabling the state to build its new Capitol.

Since June 30, 1900, the passenger fares have been reduced from 3.54 cents per mile, to 2.45 cents per mile and the average freight charges per ton one mile from 9.35 cents to 8.73 cents. The service rendered passengers and shippers has increased during the period more than one-half, while its earnings have been 19.03 per cent. less.

Owing to losses due to high water, increased cost of material, wages, taxes, service and maintenance, the earnings last year were only $61,56,925, which is less than in any of the three years preceding. All of the earnings, after paying fixed charges, went to pay the interest on the bonds nothing being received by the stockholders.

Freight is to be handled in three classes by the Illinois Central hereafter—"Manifest," "Dead" and "time" freight. The latter is a new classification and will embrace such things as furniture, clothing, etc., and is not the same of importance in regard to quick handling as the "Manifest" or "dead" freight. The latter is coal, wood and such things, while manifest includes the perishable freight.

The Richards and Pringle's minstrels arrived yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock and will show here tonight. The company travels in its own special coach and will go to Evansville from here.

Deadly

Grasp of Grip Prostrated Me.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Built Up My

Shattered Nerves and Gave Me an Appetite.

Of the millions of people, who today suffer from nervous or heart weakness, a large percentage trace the cause directly to deadly LaGrippe. It is a germ disease, and makes a direct attack upon the nerves, putting an extra strain upon them at the time their vitality is at the lowest ebb. If LaGrippe has left you with a shattered nervous system, with loss of appetite, lack of energy, insomnia, frequent headaches and morbid tendencies, you should strengthen the weakened nerves with Dr. Miles' Nervine. It will undo all that grip has done, bring back appetite, rest and restore the nerves to their normal activity.

"I want to write this testimonial for the benefit of those who have suffered from that dreaded disease—LaGrippe. I suffered several weeks with it, and nothing I tried seemed to benefit me in any way, shape or form (I suffered almost death) and finally my daughter recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine to me and I can truthfully say from the first day I felt better than in weeks. It gave me relief, built up my shattered nerves and gave me a splendid appetite. I cannot speak too highly of it and want to say, each and every one who has suffered from LaGrippe will find instant relief by getting a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine. Insist on having it and take no other. It is simply splendid. Hoping this will benefit some poor sufferer I remain,"

—Mrs. George B. Hall, Jackson, Tenn.

The I. C. pay car arrived in the city this morning about 9 o'clock from Princeton and paid off. The merchants will all remain open tonight to accommodate the railroad trade.

POLITICAL MEDAOCITY.

Senator Hanna, in a masterful address at the opening of the Ohio state campaign Saturday severely rebuked those men of affairs who deliberately and without truth or justification for political effect make public statements misrepresenting the financial condition of the country. It is well enough to play politics, but when it is carried to the extent of menacing the welfare of the people of this great country of ours by alarming them with mendacious accounts of chimerical conditions and imaginary dangers, it is carrying it entirely too far. Senator Hanna in criticizing the declarations made by Mr. Clark at Akron, O., recently, says that the utterances were criminal because they are untrue.
He said further:

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

of Be Voted On at the November Election.

CHAPTER 50.

An act to provide for an amendment to Section 181 of the Constitution of Kentucky.
"The General Assembly may, by general laws only, authorize CITIES OR TOWNS OF ANY CLASS to provide for taxation for municipal purposes, on personal property, tangible and intangible, based on income, salaries or franchisees, in lieu of an ad valorem tax thereon;
"Provided, cities of the first class shall not be authorized to omit the imposition of an ad valorem tax on property of any steam railroad, street railway, ferry, bridge, gas, water, heating, telephone, telegraph, electric light or

"As far as the financial and industrial interests of this country are concerned they never have been in any better shape than today. There is nothing to interfere with the onward progress of this development except one thing, and that one thing is to shake the confidence of the people in the principles and policies exercised by the party in power.
"But if it be true? True that such notes of warning as issued by Mr. Clarke are necessary to alarm the people in order that they will change their ideas as to the continuance of the Republican party in power (several voices: "We won't change them")—no, you will not change them, but I want to reply to this statement, uttered apparently in all seriousness at a public meeting which was supposed to be the initial one of the Democratic party in this campaign. To sound the keynote of the party they flung out the red flag and announced to the people of this state and nation that the country was on the verge of a collapse.

"Either Mr. Clarke knows absolutely nothing about business affairs or that single utterance standing alone, as affecting the results of this campaign should condemn him and the party he represents to oblivion forever. It is worse than criminal.
"Suppose that, predicted upon that speech, an alarm had been sounded that would have had practical effect. Suppose, even—which is not true—that conditions of this country had been such that a spark like that would have ignited the dynamite, and then, after the harm was done, after wretchedness and woe had come to thousands of families, after it had been demonstrated that there was no cause for alarm, but merely the vapors of a politician, seeking to bewilder the minds of honest people, what ought to be done with such a man? Is he fit, or is any such man fit, to stand before an intelligent people, such as we have in Ohio, and be called a leader, or an adviser, as to the best methods and best policies to be adopted in the interest of our country?

"I say, my friends, that the only danger that can possibly come—and I make this statement from the standpoint of the business man, and I think I know my business, better, at least than my friend Clark does, anyway—the only danger that can possibly come to the people of this country is through their own act, by their own power, and the will to change those policies which have made us what we are today.
"The Democrats of Kentucky have now resorted to personal abuse. The only criticism that has been made by Republicans of Democratic officials was as officials, and no attack has been made on their private character. Yet, doubtless for want of argument, the Democrats have begun to assail the private character of every man who makes a speech for the Republican cause, from Colonel Belknap to some of the speakers who are not candidates. Abuse never helped any cause. If the Democrats have no better grounds for wanting to be elected to office than these they are indeed short of campaign material.

Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, who has just resigned as colonial secretary of Great Britain has replied to the invitation of the Illinois Manufacturers' association, which asked him to attend its annual meeting at Chicago this year and make an address on his fiscal proposals, saying that he will be unable to leave England this year. This will be disappointing to the prominent financiers of this country, who hoped to be able to hear Mr. Chamberlain explain his views, which are of international importance just now.
The Democrats of the state should not become alarmed for the Hon. General Percy Haley simply because Governor Hockham is now exhibiting Congressman Ollie James about the state. What if Congressman James is running the governor's campaign without the assistance of Hon. General Haley? Has not Hon. General Haley been left at Frankfurt to run the state without the assistance of Congressman James?

Hon. J. C. Speight, of Graves county, Republican nominee for secretary of state, speaks at Princeton, Ky., today. Mr. Speight is one of the best speakers in the state, and will be engaged in giving appointments from now until the election and will doubtless be of great service to the Republican party in the state.

SURPRISE IN STORE

For an Alleged Highway Robber Last Night.

Dick Poore Badly Cut By Ernest Morrison Who Says Poore Held Him Up.

POORE SAYS HE WAS PLAYING

Dick Poore, 18 years old, who lives at Third and Monroe streets and is a member of the Wheeler Guards, was badly cut last night about 10:30 o'clock near Third and Jefferson streets by Ernest L. Morrison, a young man about the same age, who claims Poore tried to hold him up.

He reported to the police last evening that he was on his way home from calling on a young lady, when he noticed Poore some distance away crossing the street, and not knowing him suspected from his action that his intention was not good and prepared to defend himself. When he reached the shadows of some trees he noticed Poore a few feet away apparently waiting for him, and asked what he wanted. Poore advanced and poking a pistol into his face, replied "I want your money."

Morrison then seized the hand containing the pistol and cut Poore twice, once in the side and once in the breast, leaving him in the gutter. He did not know who the would-be robber was but reported the occurrence to the police, who located Poore soon afterwards by his going to Dr. Robertson to have his wounds dressed. Morrison is a young man of Trimble street employed at the canning factory, but formerly a motorman, and again this morning reported the trouble to the police, showing that he is not afraid to have the trouble investigated.

Poore is seriously hurt, but not necessarily fatally so. The wound in his side, should pneumonia develop, may result fatally, however. Officer Thad Terrell was sent today to the wounded boy's residence and Poore stated the facts as young Morrison gives them, but claims he only did it for fun, and had no intention of committing highway robbery. In order that the case may be thoroughly investigated, a warrant was issued against Poore for attempted highway robbery, and one against Morrison for malicious cutting. The trial will come up before Judge Sanders when Poore is able to attend court.

VERDICT ON SUNDAY

First Ever Returned in Paducah on the Sabbath.

Ike Stevenson Given Twenty-two Years in Circuit Court Yesterday.

KILLED TOM GILLS IN MARCH

The first verdict ever returned on the Sabbath in Paducah was brought in yesterday morning in the murder case against Ike Stevenson, colored, alias "Snake," when Special Judge James Campbell in circuit court polled the jury and received a verdict sentencing the accused to 21 years in the penitentiary.

Stevenson last March walked into Schultz's saloon near Ninth and Washington streets, and found Tom Gills talking to a woman. He asked Gills what he was doing "talking to his woman," according to the evidence, and pulling a pistol fired. Gills died a day or two later.

Stevenson claimed that the shooting was accidental, and that he drew the pistol only for fun. The case went to the jury Saturday afternoon and yesterday morning a verdict was reached.

Special Judge Campbell happened to walk into the room of the Palmer house about 9 o'clock yesterday morning when he found the jury assembled in the lobby in charge of Deputy Sheriff Will Lydon. He was informed that they desired to see him at the court house.

Judge Campbell immediately repaired to the county court house, convened court and received the verdict, which was that the accused, Ike Stevenson, was found guilty and sentenced to 21 years about 9:15 o'clock.

The jury was then called and asked if that was their verdict, and each replied that it was. The members were then discharged.

Judge Campbell said this morning in regard to a verdict being returned on Sunday, that the court of appeals has decided that while deliberating on a case and finding a verdict is working, nevertheless if a jury reaches a verdict on Sunday, some of the members may desire to attend divine worship, and it is best to receive the verdict on Sunday and allow the members to go to church.

Judge Campbell said he did not know how many went to church yesterday after being discharged.

Make-up of the Senate.
All the states in the union have their full quota of Senators except Delaware, which has none, and of the eighty-eight Senators all told, sixty-one of them are lawyers. Of the rest, one is a civil engineer, two are doctors, three are journalists, and the others are bankers, miners, farmers, business men and politicians.

SHIP TOSSED ABOUT

And Manager Lindsey Thought His Time Had Come.

Caught in Gale on the Atlantic Coast Last Week.

LOUISVILLE GIRLS ARE HURT

Mr. H. R. Lindsey, manager of the Sutherland Medicine company, has just returned from a trip of the Atlantic coast, in which he with a ship load of passengers had a close call in a terrific hurricane about the Old Dominion Steamer Princess Anne, between New York and Norfolk. The steamer left New York about 8 o'clock last Tuesday night. The storm came up shortly after midnight. It lasted until 8 o'clock in the morning. The wind blew a perfect gale, and huge waves mounted over the upper deck of the steamer. The members of the crew of the steamer Princess Anne gave up hope and quit work, and officers were forced to compel them to resume their duties at the point of a pistol. To make matters worse, some of the passengers became panic-stricken. One woman became hysterical and screamed "murder" and "fire" until it became necessary to forcibly lock her up in a state room.

Two Louisville girls, Misses Elizabeth and Nannie Morgan, were aboard the steamer, and Miss Nannie Morgan brought home with her a painful scalp wound and a discolored eye and cheek as a result of being thrown against the door key of her state room. She was standing on the floor of the state room when the ship gave a sudden lurch, and she was thrown violently. Miss Morgan was rendered unconscious, and remained so for several hours. She suffered more from the nervous shock than the bruises she sustained.

Mr. Lindsey, with other passengers, thought they would never reach the shore alive, but the good work of the officers and the crew saved the ship.

THE SEASON IS OVER

Paducah Club Has Now Disbanded for Winter.

A Few of Them Remain Here for a Few Days--Say They Were Not Reserved.

GOSSIP OF THE PLAYERS

The baseball future of Paducah is uncertain. It is the general opinion of the hundreds of enthusiastic fans of the city, however, that with a good management and an association that realizes in time that good men can be obtained only for good salaries and acts accordingly. Paducah may next season boast of a winning club. The close of the present season found Paducah with one of the strongest teams in the league, but it came too late. The men were not disciplined enough earlier in the season and after they gazed the night before too long into the cup that cheers which is said to have been responsible for the loss of many a game. A man cannot have a night of it and the next day see a ball, either to catch or to bat it very well.

Last night Long, Ray, Akers, Benke, Wilson, Witt, Doyle and Meredith left for home leaving Gardner, Gerard, Potts, Best and Edmunds here. Gardner left this morning for his home in Tennessee and the other three will remain here a few days before returning home. Edmunds probably remaining here through the winter.

The boys were paid off in full last night and the association has closed until summer.

It is a singular fact that the best pitchers in the league came from Tennessee and most of them from small towns. Freeman came from Dresden, Harris from a little country town near Clarksville; Myatt from Dixon, Tenn.; Gardner from McLeansville, a town of 153 inhabitants; Collins from near Memphis and Bomar also from Tennessee.

Nearly all the Paducah players live in or near Louisville and will spend the winter there. Meredith, Akers, Wilson, Gerard, all live in Louisville and Benke and Ray with Best live in Newport, Ky., but spend their time principally in Cincinnati. Edmunds lives in Columbus, O. and Witt in Missouri; Potts lives in Nashville and Doyle in Greenville, O. All have been reserved, the local management claims, but the boys say they did not sign for next year and scratched the reserved clause out of the contract.

Long goes to Louisville to finish the season out with the Louisville American team.

ALICE of OLD VINCENTES

By MAURICE THOMPSON

Copyright, 1900, by the EDWIN-MERRILL COMPANY

He shook himself and tried to be cheerful. In fact he hummed a croon ditty, something about "La-belle Jeanne," and a bright smile came over his face.

Days passed, and the great event arrived. It was a frosty night, clear, sparkling with stars, a keen breath cutting down from the northwest. M. Rousillon, Mlle. Roussillon, Alice and Lieutenant Beverley went together to the river house, where they had been preceded by almost the entire population of Vincennes. Some fresh had been built outside, the crowd paying too great for the building's capacity, as there had been many more for the dancers. Mlle. Roussillon, however, around the dancing logs, while within the house a noble song its shape and revelling tones. Everybody talked and laughed; it was a lively racket of dancing voices and rhythmic feet.

When the Roussillon party arrived it attracted considerable attention. Its importance, naturally of the greatest in the assembled popular mind, was enhanced—as mathematicians would say to the nth power—by the gown of Alice. It was resplendent indeed in the simple, unadorned eyes upon which it flashed with a soft golden glow. Mlle. Roussillon stared at it, mumbled with frowning and jealous vision, and a young and old let their eyes take full liberty. It was as if a queen, arrayed in a robe of state, had entered that dingy log edifice, an apparition of dazzling and awe inspiring beauty. The dancers swung together and stopped in confusion. But she, fortified by a woman's strongest bulwark, the sense of responsibility, appeared quite unconscious of herself.

Little Adrienne, hanging in blissful delight upon Alice's strong arm, felt the stir of excitement and wondered what was the matter, being too short to see over the heads of those around her. "What's it? What's it?" she cried, tiptoeing and tugging at her companion's sleeve. "Tell me, Rene; tell me, I say."

Rene was gazing in dumb admiration into which there swept a powerful anger, like a breath of flame. He recollected how Alice had refused to wear that dress when he had asked her, and now she had it on. Moreover, there stood beside Lieutenant Beverley, holding his arm, looking up into his face, smiling, speaking to him.

It was as if a queen had entered.

"I think you might tell me what has happened," said Adrienne, pointing and still plucking at his arm. "I can't see a thing, and you won't tell me."

"Oh, it's nothing," he presently answered rather freely. Then he stooped, lowered his voice and added: "It's Mlle. Roussillon all dressed up like a bride or something. She's got on a buff silk dress that M. Rousillon's mother had in France."

"How beautiful she must look!" cried the girl. "I wish I could see her."

Rene put a hand on each side of her slender waist and lifted her high, so that her pretty head rose above the crowding people. Alice glanced to turn her face that way just then and saw the unconventional performance. Her eyes met those of Adrienne and she gave a nod of smiling recognition. It was a rose beaming upon a gillyflower.

M. Rousillon naturally understood that all this stir and crowding to see was but another demonstration of his personal popularity. He bowed and waved a vast hand.

But the master of ceremonies called loudly for the dancers to take their places. Once Jaxon attacked his fiddle with startling energy. Those who were not to dance formed a compact double line around the wall, the shorter ones in front, the taller in the rear.

Alice and Beverley were soon in the whirl of the dance, forgetful of everything but an exhilaration stirred to its utmost by Uncle Jaxon's music. When their dance was ended they followed the others of their set out into the open air while a fresh stream of eager dancers poured in. Beverley insisted upon wrapping Alice in her mantle of unfaded heaver skin against the searching winter breath. They did not go to the fire, but walked back and forth, chatting until their turn to dance should come again, pausing frequently to exchange pleasantries with some of the people. Curiously enough both of them had forgotten the fact that other young men would be sure to ask Alice for a dance and that more than one pretty creature lass was vainly expiring a giddy turn with the stalwart and handsome Lieutenant Beverley.

Rene de Beville, before long broke rudely into their dream and led Alice into the house. This reminded Beverley of his old duty; wherefore, seeing little Adrienne, he made a dash and secured her at a swoop from the midst of a scrambling circle of naturally kindred young men.

"Adrienne, my girl!" he cried, quite in the way of the occasion, and swung her lightly along with him.

It was like an eagle dancing with a flame, or a giant with a fairy, when the big lieutenant led out in little Adrienne, as everybody called her. The honor of Beverley's attention sat unapproached on Adrienne's mind, for all her thoughts went with her eyes toward Alice and Alice. Nor was Beverley absorbed in his partner's belief that he ever for a moment willingly lost sight of the floating buff gown, the shining brown hair and the beautiful face, which formed indeed the center of attraction for all eyes.

It was some time before Beverley could again secure Alice for a dance, and he found it annoying him atrociously to see her smile sweetly on some husky lad who looked like an India and danced like a Parisian. He did not greatly enjoy most of his partners; they could not appeal to any side of his nature just then. Not that he at times stood too much on his aristocratic traditions, or lacked the virile traits common to vigorous and worldly minded men, but the contrast between Alice and the other girls present was somehow an absolute bar to a democratic freedom of the sort demanded by the occasion. He met Father Beret and passed a few pleasant words with him.

"They have honored your flag, my son, I am glad to see," the priest said, pointing with a smile to where, in one corner, the banner that bore Alice's name was effectively draped.

Beverley had not noticed it before, and when he properly got possession of Alice he asked her to tell him the story of how she planted it on the fort, although she had heard it to the last detail from Father Beret just a moment ago. They stood together under its folds while she lovingly sketched the scene for him, even down to her picturesquely disagreeable interview with Long Hair, mention of whom led up to the story of the Indian's race with the stolen dame Jeanne of brandy under his arm on that memorable night and the subsequent services performed for him by Father Beret and her after she and Jean had found him in the mud beyond the river.

The dancing went on at a furious pace while they stood there. Now and again a youth came to claim her, but she said she was tired and begged to rest awhile, smiling so graciously upon each one that his rebuff thrilled him as if it had been the most flattering gift of tender partiality, while at the same time he suspected that it was all for Beverley.

Helm in his most jovial mood was circulating freely.

It was late when fathers and mothers in the company began to suggest adjournment. In the open lamps suspended here and there the oil was running low, and the rag wicks sputtered and winked with their yellow flames.

"Well," said M. Rousillon, coming to where Alice and Beverley stood insulated and isolated by their great delight in each other's company, "it's time to go home."

Beverley looked at his watch. It was a quarter to three!

Alice also looked at the watch, and saw engraved and enameled on its massive case the Beverley crest, but she did not know what it meant. There was something of the sort in the back of her locket, she remembered with satisfaction.

Just then there was a peculiar stir in the flagging crowd. Some one had arrived, a courier de bois from the north. Where was the commandant? The courier had something important for him.

Beverley heard a remark in a startled voice about the English getting ready for a descent upon the Wabash valley. This broke the charm which thrilled him and sent through his nerves the bracing shock that only a soldier can feel when a hint of coming battle reaches him.

Alice saw the flash in his face. "Where is Captain Helm?" she must see him immediately. "Excuse me," he said, abruptly turning away and looking over the heads of the people. "Yonder he is; I must go to him."

The courier de bois, Adolphe Dutremble by name, was just from the head waters of the Wabash. He was speaking to Helm when Beverley came up. M. Rousillon followed close upon the lieutenant's heels, as eager as he to know what the message amounted to; but Helm took the courier aside, motioning Beverley to join them. M. Rousillon included himself in the conference.

French Lick and West Baden Springs

In the highlands of Indiana—a two hour ride from Louisville there flow wonderful healing waters, that you'd spend hundreds of dollars to enjoy if they were in Europe.

A recent visitor from Philadelphia, who formerly went to Carlsbad every year, said: "I do not see why anyone goes to Europe for medicinal waters. The water is as beneficial, and the scenery and surrounding country, the air and the opportunities for recreation are better; the hotels and all accommodations are much finer at French Lick-West Baden Springs"—and this gentleman is a native of Switzerland.

The splendidly wooded hills, with the cool, invigorating air of these highlands where one can enjoy rambles in the depths of the forest, or rides and drives among the numerous bridle paths and roadways, afford pleasure for those who desire rest and quiet; while at the splendid and casinos one can have all the entertainment and pleasures possible at the most fashionable resorts.

Theatrical Notes.

Miss Flora May Clark, (Lillian Lancaster) has resigned with Barney Gilmore's company.

Mr. Claxton Wiltach, manager for Miss Adelaide Thurston, has out also this year as a star his wife, Lizzie Evans, who has been seen here several times in support of Miss Thurston.

Grace Elliston is to be Richard Mansfield's leading woman this season. She has done excellent work as Benita in "Arizona," and last season in support of Henry Miller in "The Taming of Helen."

Herrmann, the Great, entertained fairly large audiences at the Kenney Saturday afternoon and night and as usual gave satisfaction in every respect. In palming he is the best on the American stage. His illusions are new and mystifying, and the vaudeville features of the show are most attractive. He went from here to Louisville.

Merry Katie Emmett will be seen at the Kentucky Wednesday night. Possibly those who have watched the career of this charming little actress will exclaim "What is Katie Emmett still playing 'Willie Rufus'?" She certainly is, and why not, when the public demand for seats to see her has never been greater than this year? This year Miss Emmett is said to have an exceptionally strong company in her support and one of the best performances yet seen of this well known play will be given. Seats go on sale Tuesday at 10 a. m.

Mr. Oscar Gould, the affable manager of the Richard & Pringle's minstrels here today, has been all over the south, and says that business is very good. The show has been out eleven weeks, and is coming money. It is said to be the best colored minstrel in the country, and always draws large houses. Mr. Gould made many friends in Paducah last spring as treasurer of the Ferrari Brothers Carnival company, which he left in July to accept the management of the present company. The show has just completed a tour of Texas, where people were turned away.

"An Aristocratic Tramp" with Killy and Britten heading a big company of the very best eastern talent, will be the attraction at the Kentucky on Tuesday evening for one performance only. "An Aristocratic Tramp" is unlike any other play with a so-called tramp title in that it appeals to and pleases the mother, father, son and daughter alike. It yields a beautiful story and makes the evening's entertainment worthy the careful attention of every amusement lover.

S. H. Dudley, the comedian, who made such a hit last season with Richards & Pringle's Famous Georgia Minstrels, is again with the same organization and will be seen in a brand new skit or afterpiece in which "Jim Jackson" is having his troubles in the "Policy Shop." Dudley is the role of the tough country nigger. "Jim Jackson" is true to nature; his droll sayings and quick gun plays keep the audience in one continual roar of laughter. Critics say that Dudley is the funniest negro on the stage. The company will appear at the Kentucky tonight with a brand new show. The parade today indicates that the people expect a first class performance.

LIVELY TIME

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION BREAKS UP IN A ROW.

The Democratic mass convention Saturday afternoon at Benton, Marshall county, to name delegates to the district convention at Kuttawa today, broke up in a row. There are two factions in the county, it seems, the Wyatt and the Warren-Vinson factions, and each went to the convention prepared to run over the other if the opportunity presented itself.

The Warren-Vinson faction got control of the convention, however, and put R. C. Boyd in control over the Wyatt faction's candidate, Judge James Fisher. Upon its being learned how the land lay, the Wyatt crowd waited until the others had dispersed and held a rump convention, the result being that two delegations went to Kuttawa today.

Disinterested persons who attended the convention say that the two factions were about equally divided. The chairman of the defeated faction stated to friends after it was over that his crowd intended to do the same thing the anti-Wyatt crowd succeeded in doing, only the last named beat them to it.
